

Figure Library

This directory contains canonical reusable figures available in the supplied corpus. The current archive exposes the concept dependency graph as a reusable image. The catalog records additional figure-bearing source artifacts, but source figures were not silently extracted or redrawn because their normative captions and reuse rights require review.

Future figures must receive a stable identifier, editable source, caption, concept links, source artifact, license/status, and version.